THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE V. ESWARAIAH

WRIT PETITION No.20491 OF 2005

Dated: 27-12-2005

Between

Vurumu Nagavenkata Somasekhar,

S/o. V. Veerabadra Rao, Occ: Business,

Chairman of the registered Trust No:866

Of 2003 called Vurum Nagavenkata

Somasekhar and Mandavalli Kanaka

Durgamba Oldage Home Trust,

Established under trust deed Dt.5-2-2003

In D.No.24 B-10-57, Panugantivari

Street Ramachandra Rao Pet, Eluru

West Godavari District.

...PETITIONER

AND

Deputy Inspector General of Police,

Eluru Range, West Godavari and others.

...RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

Petitioner seeks a Writ of Mandamus to declare the action of the third respondent in interfering with the affairs of the Nagavenkata Somasekhara and Mandavalli

Kanakadurgamaba Old age home trust and threatening the Chairman and members of the trust in the name of settlement of civil disputes and the inaction on the part of the respondents 1 and 2 on his notice dated 12.09.2005 as illegal and arbitrary.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there are certain civil disputes in respect of the said trust and the respondents are illegally interfering with the civil disputes and threatening the Chairman and members of the trust in the name of settlement of civil disputes. Aggrieved by the illegal action of the respondents the petitioner got issued a legal notice on 12.09.2005 in spite of the same the respondents have not stopped the illegal interference.

Counter has been filed on behalf of the third respondent stating that the respondents have never interfered with the civil disputes of the petitioner at any point of time and also never called the petitioner to the police station by sending his subordinates as alleged by the petitioner and all the allegations made by the petitioner have been denied.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and in view of the specific denial by the official respondents that the police is not interfering with the civil disputes of the petitioner, no further orders are required to be passed in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly closed.
